MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Laura Beltchenko is committed to the professional development of teachers to support implementation of best practice literacy instruction.

Laura Beltchenko is a 38-year veteran educator. Her career in public education includes classroom teacher, reading specialist, teacher and coordinator of gifted programs as well as associate superintendent for curriculum and instruction for a K-12-unit school district. Laura believes in the use of high-quality children's literature as a vehicle to support both the cognitive and affective development of all ages of students. She has been awarded countless awards and named the Lake County Illinois Innovative Educator by the Illinois Principals Association. She held the post of president of the Illinois Suburban Council of the International Reading Association and has been very active in the Illinois and National Associations for Gifted. She was awarded Administrator of the Year by NAG. She is currently the Chairman of the ISBE Gifted Education Advisory Council and immediate past Professional Development Chair of the Illinois Association of Title I Directors. She is a member of the Friends of the Center for Teaching Through Children's Books at National Louis University. Laura is a presenter at state and national conventions on varied topics in literacy. Other topics include multicultural and culturally relevant children's literature, as well as how to use picture books to support social and emotional learning. We are thrilled to have her present to us for this unique offering.

Laura Beltchenko is an avid collector and speaker on the Evolution of Children's Literature Through the Lens of Little Golden Books.
