

Kids love to read comics! Help your students learn how to create comics and tell stories in pictures with a visit from...

ILLUSTRATOR | AUTHOR
Jeff Weigel

Fun, interactive, and engaging presentations for elementary to high school students.

Jeff has visited 80+ schools to teach students...

- how to tell a story in pictures—a lesson that increases visual literacy and understanding of story structure,
- how to design a character's appearance—a lesson that helps students' understanding of characterization in story,
- how to improve their drawing skills.

Jeff has written and/or illustrated and designed more than a dozen books, from graphic novels and picture books for kids, to volumes on the history of American comics. He also draws the classic Sunday newspaper comic strip The Phantom, which appears weekly in newspapers across the globe.

Contact Jeff to arrange a visit: 618-791-9005 • jeffweigel@charter.net • www.jeffweigel.com