

Scholastic Book Fairs

*Invites All Staff to a Free Event with Mr. Schu!

Please join us for an incredible professional development opportunity!

The Reading Life: Connecting Classrooms, Libraries, and Communities Through Story

John Schumacher (a.k.a Mr. Schu) is known for his expertise in children's literature and for igniting a passion to read. He will share his experiences in promoting a culture of reading among students, staff, and parents. Participants will walk away inspired to implement heart-growing literacy practices that will make the world better and brighter for their students and colleagues.

When: Wednesday, March 4, 2020

Time: 4:00 pm Registration
4:15 – 5:45 pm Presentation

Where: St. Francis Xavier School | Atrium
808 Linden Avenue
Wilmette, IL 60091

RSVP: <https://MrSchuVisitsSFX.eventbrite.com>
by 2/25 or Sharie Dodge at Sdodge@ScholasticBookFairs.com

Professional Development documentation provided

Mr. Schu is the Ambassador of School Libraries for Scholastic Book Fairs®, a blogger, and a part-time lecturer at Rutgers University. Every day is a giant book party for this teacher-librarian! John is one of the contributors to The Creativity Project and blogs daily at MrSchuReads.com.

